

Phase I: 2003 | AAS

WHO? aas are everything you want us to be. we are the great idea that you are having now. we will make you think. we will also irritate the fuck out of you. you will think we are twats. we do care what you think about us, but not enough to try and please you. you may think you know who we are, but you are wrong.

WHAT? aas will do whatever it takes to make you realise that you are being manipulated, and we will do it by manipulating you.

WHEN? aas can only operate now. they have been lying to you by making you think time is divisible and that the past and future exist. they do not. now is the unfolding wave of reality on which we are surfing. don't be deluded.

WHERE? aas is HERE. there is only here. how big can we make here? it encompasses everything there is. there is nowhere to go. you are already here.

WHY? aas love you.
